REPORT ON Bolshevist Activities in Shanghai.

Made by D. I. Givens Forwarded by [redacted]

Sir,

The following is a memorandum on information regarding Bolshevist activities in Shanghai communicated by three members of the Union of Russian Army Men in Shanghai whom Mr. Ivanoff, the Russian Assessor, sent to see me on February 2 :-

The offices of the "Shanghai Life", No. 12 Boone Road, are the headquarters of all Bolshevist activities in Shanghai, and is the centre from which such pro-Bolshevik organizations as the Russian Famine Relief Committee, the Russian Democratic Club, Esperanto School and Bolshevik Intelligence Bureau are directed. Apart from those directly associated with the "Shanghai Life", the most active Bolsheviks in Shanghai are :

Bogoluboff, 54 Rue Baron Gros,
Michael Popoff, Tsongchow Road,
Semechoff, 17 Yangtsepoo Road,
Peroff, No. 1 Ferry Road,
Angarsky, address unknown
Yegalevitch, " "

It is alleged that Messrs Semechoff and Peroff, both of whom speak English, intermingle with British and American sailors and endeavour to propagate Bolshevist ideas among them. Angarsky and Yegalevich are said to be working in the Bolshevist Intelligence Bureau and were formerly employed on similar work in Vladivostock.

All the Bolsheviks named above are Russian subjects with the exception of Peroff. The latter is an American Jew of Russian origin.
